

Broadcast Media Monitoring

WIN Western Australia (Perth)

WIN News - 7/08/2008 6:39 PM

Elaine Jung

Mid-West TAFE and the Geraldton Iron Ore Alliance have been canvassing young people in an effort to retain young talent in the region. The consortium put on a hands on career expo in Geraldton today. Susan Madgwick, Careers Advisor says it is a big thing for the school. Dwayne Black, Shearing Instructor says the shearing industry is competing with mining and other industries for workers. Marcus Baker, Student says shearing is tricky. Rob Jefferies, Geraldton Iron Ore Alliance says it is important that enough young workers stay in the region.

Interviewees: Dwayne Black, Shearing Instructor; Marcus Baker, Student; Rob Jefferies, Geraldton Iron Ore Alliance; Susan Madgwick, Careers Advisor

Duration: 1.48

Summary ID: P00031671853

© Media Monitors